

FLORIDA SPECIAL ELECTION

What You Need to Know

Are You Prepared to Vote?

On April 1, 2025 Congressional District 1 will have a special election to elect a new U.S. House of Representatives member. U.S. House members can have enormous influence on the community through legislation and constituent services. Whether the candidate you vote for wins or not, the winner is YOUR representative and they MUST represent all constituents' interests and pursue goals that will benefit and uplift their community.

How does Congress impact me?

- Draft, promote, and vote on laws about key issues like healthcare, housing, taxes, and the economy.

- Fund programs such as Medicare/Medicaid, SNAP, and WIC.

- Set national standards for education and financial assistance for higher education through FAFSA.

- Provide checks and balances to the executive and judicial branch.

- Set funding and rules for national security and immigration processes.

- Advocate for their constituents to help them to solve problems with federal programs, such as Social Security and public assistance benefits, disaster assistance, small business assistance, federal student aid, or small farmers assistance to name a few.
