

QUALIFICATIONS TO VOTE BY MAIL

Who can vote by mail?

- FL does not require an excuse or reason to vote by mail. Any registered voter in FL (or their immediate family or legal guardian on behalf of the voter) may request a vote-by-mail ballot for any election in which they are eligible to vote. There is no requirement to be elderly, disabled, or absent from the county on Election Day.
- A person living in an assisted living facility or nursing home may also request supervised absentee ballot voting under section 101.655, FL Statutes.
